This Monday, Continuing During the Week, Opening Display of Imported Art Novelties For Easter Gifts.

In years gone by comparatively few of the trifles as gifts had any real appropriateness except Easter Cards. Now there are many things especially intended for Easter, with a wide choice in novelties and souvenirs.

We have pleasure in calling to your attention a vast array of fresh fancies, rare and beautiful, designed especially for Easter gifts, a large proportion of which was personally selected in Europe and includes many elegant bits of daintiness and oddity that are not obtainable elsewhere.

Easter Cards and Leaflets in Great Profusion.

First floor—Eleventh st.

The New Hosiery, Plain and Fancy.

Displaying selections and importations for spring, comprising all the new staples and elegant novelties, in exquisite lace, open work, polka dot, check, stripe and embroidered effects. The French lace and open work silk novelties are charmingly beautiful and are all black or all white—and both are very fashionable. Some of the embroidered hose are embroidered in flowers, and so on. The clock embroidery is popular again. The printed hose are in many new designs.

This collection of hosiery for spring and summer covers more than a thousand styles; and, as many styles come in from three to six color variations, the range is almost endless and affords an opportunity to select the latest and best in both foreign and domestic hosiery.

Maude Adams in Gold

Held her first reception today in our Millinery Parlor, 2nd floor, and was greeted with an overwhelming ovation, as much so as the great hit she made in "L'Aiglon." This most magnificent statue, which represents 600 pounds of 14-karat gold, costing $250,000, will remain with us this entire week. We consider it a most beautiful treat for any one to see. From 8 a.m. until closing time you'll find her elevated on her throne awaiting your criticism. This exhibit is free to all Washington.

Fine Imported Woolen Materials!

An extraordinary offering of Easter Dress Fabrics. Our own direct importations. An array of styles which surpass anything in this city yet made.

44-inch Voile. Every fashion journal mentions this soft and beautiful material. It is very much like grenadine in weave and is light enough for midsummer wear. Shades of green, rose, tan, marine, porcelain, mode and brown. Nothing like it sold elsewhere under $1.25. For..... 89c.

44-inch Panne Cloth. Velvet of the same name isn't any richer. Has that soft touch, is lustrous, and will drape very gracefully. We are showing ten of the most desirable shades— 98c. $1.39 value—for.....

44-inch Wool Crepe—soft, clinging, light and durable. This beautiful fabric has the same appearance and as much wearing virtue as the all-silk kind. Showing these in a line of colorings which we are sure would please the most critical. $1.25 value. 89c. For.....

45-in. Silk and Wool Poplin Crepe—one of the most beautiful fabrics ever shown—the softest tints of rose, gray, castor, brown, mode, navy, cadet and helio. There are goods selling in this city today at $3.00 that are not any richer than this line. We consider that they are worth $2.50. For..... $1.69

46-in. Zephyr Camel's Hair—almost as light as organza—a very swell weave. These goods are sold in such colors as Resen green, Havana brown, porcelain blue and French gray; $2.50 value. For..... $1.69

48-inch Embroidered Silk Poplin. There isn't an establishment anywhere showing anything more elaborate than these. The finest soft browns, royal blue, grays, green, with embroidery of black and white; artistic skill reaches its highest ambition in these designs and combinations. In dress patterns, at, per yard. $4.98

French Robes, Embroidered Camelhair Grenadine Robes, Embroidered Barge Robes, Embroidered Voile Robes. Some with handsome embroidery of silk; others with rich Honiton effect. Limited in quantity and exclusiveness. Per pattern.... $17 to $30.00

Waist patterns—a very unique novelty—Alphabets with Persian hand trimming—this material is the ideal cloth for spring and summer—even for dresses, although it is really a waist pattern, if there is anything swifter or nobler in a waist that you want these should be seen. FIRST FLOOR—SECTION B.
